From the office of the President of the Southwest Square Dance Association of Wisconsin

My name is Bob Dahnert and will be the President for this year. I want to welcome the new dancers into the square dance world. The veteran dancers also welcome you into their squares. Just go out and dance at the neighboring clubs and have a great time. All the dancers go and support all the activities in and around the state. The Area Jamborees, when they are in your area (most of you are in the southwest area of Wisconsin. Attend them, have fun. The state has a convention each year, this year it is in Rothschild, WI (near Wausau). Attend if you can. Engage in club parades, county fairs, exhibitions these activities are always fun. To all dancers, go out and take part in club dances, club events, support the surrounding states conventions. Support the National Convention, this year it is in Little Rock Arkansas. Happy Square Dancing
Bob Dahnert.
