June Myklebust & Bob Dahmert

You have seen them at dances and conventions and weekend events. They are constantly promoting square dancing. She has more skirts than you can imagine. He can do anything with wood. She is organized and never forgets a name. He has an impish sense of humor and is very committed to square dancing. Together the team of Bob & June worked countless hours to ensure your dancing pleasure at the 2011 convention in De-Forest, so when you see them, be sure to say "Thank you" and let them know their hard work paid off.

They chose several people to head some of the committees who had no experience, but who did an outstanding job, especially Publicity, Registration, and the Fashion Show. Bringing new people into the leadership of Square Dancing is vital to ensure that this activity we love will live on. It meant that Bob & June had to work a little harder to support these inexperienced people, but it certainly paid off in the innovation, sense of fun, and the finished product.
