*Life
Has Changed*

*Square Dancing
Needs to Keep Up*

Karen Shawkey created the website for Westport Squares in 1996 with help from her daughter, Kris. Since that time she has continued to re-design and improve the site, including getting the domain name so any search engine puts it close to the top.

The site now includes dance schedules, photos, club history, the current Tips & Cues, maps, and links to other clubs, information and articles about square dancing. Karen updates it constantly (I just checked and she updated it yesterday!). Having all this information (and having it current and correct) has really helped the club.

They have had visitors from as far away as Germany, Australia, and Japan, and frequently have guests who are just visiting in the area. Many of their new dancers find them through the website.

Perhaps Twitter and Tweets about Square Dancing activities will be next. Kudos to Westport Squares and to Karen for maintaining this great communication tool. If your club doesn't have one, think about it.
