Square Dancers take the Stage

Dancers from Westport and Badger Rovers joined Milton on stage in a production of Oklahoma! in Evansville. Talk about showcasing square dancing, these brave dancers donned turn of the (19th) century costumes, and with Bob Lindemann behind the (not always properly functioning) microphone, showed audience members that square dancing is still alive in the modern era. They had six performances, and several rehearsals, so it was quite a commitment for these dancers:

Caller -- Bob Lindemann

David Lust & Reta Smith
Byron & Jan Dennison
George & Gay McRoberts
Bill & Rose Reed
Duaine Boehm & Pat Tobin
Monte & Karen Whitford
Phil & Betty Hamilton
Tom & Connie McKearn
Roland Hemmann & Viv Lindemann
Curly Bold & Mary Ann Switala

Milton also actively participates in community events to share their love of square dancing with the surrounding towns. They offered an introduction to square dancing at the Janesville Senior Center, and joined the Boy Scouts for a Farm Breakfast demonstration.

They perform from time to time at area nursing homes and during intermission Minnie Pearl (Reta Smith) entertains with jokes and witty stories.

A church group in Milton has invited them for an annual potluck for the last few years. This year they gathered in a park and old and young participated in the dancing fun.

Last year Milton's new dancer class graduated over 20 dancers. If your club would like more new dancers, maybe you should follow Milton's lead and get active in your community. If people don't know square dancing exists, they are missing out and so are we.
